

When we have a dream, we've got to grab it and never let go as Carol Burnett said. Time flies, but we can be the pilot of it because we have lots more to do. Life is a mixture of ups and downs. If we face always toward the sun, be sure the shadows will only be behind us. Stand up for what you believe in. We have to define our own life. We've got to hold on tight and go ahead.

Warm Greetings From Sheetal!
